MISS ELECKTRA rated in the middle of the pack between horses then made a steady advance while four wide into the stretch and ran down the leaders in the final sixteenth. ECHO VALLEY pressed the early pace then ranged up and loomed at the 1/4 pole before contending through the long drive, then led late but got caught in the final yards. TIPSY TULIP set a pressured pace while never catching a breather then contended through the long drive with ECHO VALLEY and dug in along the rail but was outfinished. RYKA broke outward then raced close up with a rail trip and made a mild rally late. PERFECT ANGEL settled along the inside then split horses nearing the 3/8 pole and made a bid but raced evenly in the stretch. SHAMROCK RONI chased the pace while five wide and flashed brief foot before dropping back and made no rally. GIO ROSE got squeezed at the start and showed no speed while well back then never threatened.
