FIVEFIVE SIX CHAMP was hustled up and chased the pace while four wide then took over on the turn and raced all out through the stretch, holding sway on the wire. SCAREDY CATNESS broke sharply and set the early pace then was headed on the turn and passed but dug in through the stretch run and ran on for place. THRU THE VINE was allowed to settle early then angled five wide at the 1/4 pole and was asked, rallying late in the lane. REAL NAUGHTY raced close up early then loomed between horses at the 1/4 pole and was urged to challenge in the stretch but was outfinished. ATLANTIC FIRESTORM got off slowly and raced off the rail then was asked while six wide into the stretch but just raced evenly late. DUCALE got shut off at the start and was void of early speed then angled seven wide but made no rally. MR. BOGAN settled early and saved ground then angled eight wide at the 1/4 pole but never threatened.
