Footnotes | View Glossary Of Terms

IVY GIRL was hustled from the gate, moved up then chased the pace, shifted from the rail to the three path on the turn, came out in front of a foe just inside the five-sixteenths pole, chased the dueling leaders on the outside into the final furlong, gained fast coming to the sixteenth-pole and blew by the embattled duo to win going away. ISLAND CHARM moved in while going to the front, set the pace under pressure to her outside, vied along the rail on the turn, was asked near the five-sixteenths pole, lost the advantage into upper stretch, dueled inside of CATHEDRAL AISLE into the final sixteenth and narrowly earned the place while no match for the winner. CATHEDRAL AISLE pressed the pace on the outside then in the two path on the turn, was given her cue near the five-sixteenths pole, took the lead into upper stretch, dueled outside of the runner-up into the final sixteenth and also proved no match for the winner then just missed the place while well clear for the show. WHATTA WEEKEND lost her footing slightly at the start, settled off the pace, was roused in the three to four path on the turn, steadied when the winner came out in front just inside the five-sixteenths pole and came up empty. LUCIANA'S HONOR moved out while dropping back early, climbed slightly in the process, settled towards the rear, was roused in the four to five path on the turn and failed to respond. DELVER was urged along near the back, rounded the turn in the two path and faltered then was eased but walked off. CATHOLIC VICE was hustled from the gate then urged along near the back on the far outside, went around the turn in the five to six path and also faltered then was eased but walked off. FOLOWING THE RACE, THE RIDER OF WHATTA WEEKEND CLAIMED FOUL AGAINST THE WINNER ALLEGING INTERFERENCE NEAR THE FIVE-SIXTEENTHS POLE. AFTER THE STEWARDS' REVIEW, NO CHANGE WAS MADE TO THE ORDER OF FINISH
