Footnotes | View Glossary Of Terms

BRAYBRAY , with the early pace between foes, disputed the pace outside MYSTERIOUS TALE leaving the turn, poked a head in front near the five sixteenths, shook clear into the stretch and steadily widened under a drive. MYSTERIOUS TALE advanced inside foes to take the early lead, took outer pressure into the turn, ceded command mid turn, gave willing chase from the head of the lane and saved the place. PALACE ATTAINED , with the pace three deep, was under pressure past the five sixteenths, drifted in through the final furlong and came up empty. SHUDDER chased in the clear, raced two wide into the lane, shifted out while on the left lead and lacked a serious response. CHIRAG stumbled at the break and was outrun.
