Footnotes | View Glossary Of Terms

FLY COMMANDER vied for the lead in the three path, continued under a ride around the turn, held command at the top of the lane, and kicked away. FLYIN RYAN pressed between foes in the two path, steadied going into the turn, was driven in the three path around the turn, and got up for place. ALTER BOY dueled for the lead inside, was roused from the rail passing the three-eighths pole, but faded down the lane for show. UNUSUAL ACTIVITY trailed in the two path, was ridden from the rail around the turn, cut the corner turning into the lane, steadied around the sixteenth pole, but made no impact. AN OBJECTION LODGED BY THE RIDER OF FLYIN RYAN AGAINST THE RIDER OF FLY COMMAND FOR INTERFERENCE GOING INTO THE TURN RESULTED IN NO CHANGE.
