FOR MAMA stalked the pace out of the gates, rallied from the outside around the turn, then drew clear of the field at the head of the stretch and was a complete runaway. CELTIC MISCHIEF had no early foot early on, racing along the inside, then angled out in the stretch, closing but was no match for the winner. CHAMBERS BAY was near the back in the early going, racing from the outside, then closed in late stretch to get up for show. STOMPING HOTROD got the early lead out of the gates, racing just off the rail, in between horses, but gave way in the stretch drive. HINK'S PALADIN pressed the pace early, from the inside and faded in the turn.
