Footnotes | View Glossary Of Terms

ELLADA FIREBALL trailed in the early stages, moved up between rivals for the run up the backstretch, split foes in the upper stretch and kicked clear with authority. TROJAN CHEERLEADER was allowed to settle after the start, trailed up the backstretch, gained along the outside of the far turn to enter the stretch in a competitive position, got up for the place award but was no match for the winner. TECTONIC was rated in the early stages, launched a three wide bid midway around the far turn to take charge, was unable to sustain the bid and weakened in the final furlong. ROCKY WORLD advanced four wide around the first turn to press the pace up the backstretch, claimed a brief lead entering the far turn before being joined by other challengers, flattened out in the stretch. GO EVE GO was off swiftly, vied with YES PLEASE DO until conceding at the five eighths marker, continued to give chase along the inside until retreating in the far turn. YES PLEASE DO vied for command with GO EVE GO until taking charge at the five eighths, continued up the backstretch under pressure from ROCKY WORLD, relinquished command at the three eighths marker and faded.
