COACH PETRO was unhurried early, rallied six-wide the final quarter and finished strongly to be up in the final strides. PERMIT TO CARRY was reserved while racing four-wide, moved up five-wide to gain a slight lead nearing the quarter pole, disputed the issue from that point but was unable to resist the winner late in a game effort. RED SHAHEEN saved ground chasing THE BREAKER LENNIE angled out to be two-wide nearing the stretch and finished well in a steady effort. TIVERTON saved ground while being allowed to settle, swung out to come three-wide into the stretch then angled in nearing the eighth pole but lacked a rally. TIE BREAKER LENNIE saved ground setting the pace to near the quarter pole and weakened.
