CLEAN MACHINE broke well and dueled inside ARTISTIC LANEY through the early stages, responded when set down near the quarter pole as CRAFTED made a three-wide bid, had something in reserve, battled that rival through the stretch and edged clear in the closing stages to prevail. CRAFTED broke awkwardly outward and was last away, settled at the back to the turn, launched a bid from the three-furlong pole, drew even with the two leaders turning for home, dueled gamely with CLEAN MACHINE through the stretch, then gave way grudgingly in the final yards while holding clear for the place. ARTISTIC LANEY broke well and went head-to-head with CLEAN MACHINE from the outset and through the turn, gave way passing the quarter pole and continued evenly through the late stages to hold third. MR. HIGH POCKETS was sent hard from the break but lacked the speed to contest the pace, settled in third position to the stretch, then failed to change leads through the late stages and was unable to improve. This race had a timing discrepancy or malfunction and was re-timed using video technology to arrive at the most accurate time.

EZ YOURS was sent hard from the break to clear the field, controlled the pace while maintaining a comfortable advantage to the stretch, then had plenty in reserve and held firm through the late stages. CLASSIC TIRAMISU tracked between foes a couple of lengths behind the leader, remained within range through the turn, then stayed on best of the chasing group to inherit the place in the final yards. DANGEREUSE hopped at the start, moved over to the rail and waited for an opening that failed to materialize, shifted out to the three path for the stretch run, advanced to gain second but was unable to sustain the effort and was outfinished for the place in the final yards. ISHA raced three wide throughout while staying within range of the leader, remained in contention into the stretch but was unable to make any headway and was outfinished by the other two chasers through the late stages. This race had a timing discrepancy or malfunction and was re-timed using video technology to arrive at the most accurate time.

BRADLEY dueled with GUESS AGAIN from the start to the far turn, got the better of that one approaching the quarter pole only to be confronted by GLOBAL EVENT at that point, gamely battled that rival into the stretch, then edged clear in the final furlong to prevail in a gutsy effort. MY TROOPER settled inside with the tracking pair, tracked the dueling leaders into the stretch while keeping to the inside, made a good try up the rail but could not reel in the winner. ATLAS FALLS was unhurried and settled well off the pace at the rear through the first half-mile, started a three-wide bid midway through the far turn and continued the bid through the stretch to get up into the third spot. GLOBAL EVENT hopped at the start, tracked two-wide just off the pace of the two up front, launched a bid from the three-furlong pole, chased BRADLEY unsuccessfully through the stretch, and weakened in the final furlong. GUESS AGAIN dueled to the outside of BRADLEY from the start, the gave way before the quarter pole and had nothing left for the stretch run. This race had a timing discrepancy or malfunction and was re-timed using video technology to arrive at the most accurate time.

PARLAY seized the early advantage and controlled the pace, was allowed a breather through the middle stages, then quickened away from MIZ KEETA heading into the far turn, opened a commanding advantage and drew off through the stretch under mild handling. BETTER HALF settled at the rear but remained within range, continued to bide time while saving ground through the far turn, then rallied willingly along the inside through the stretch to gain the place while never posing a threat to the winner. OUR LAST SONG settled in the middle of the compact field, remained within range through the middle stages, came under pressure on the far turn and finished willingly through the stretch, but was unable to match BETTER HALF for the place. MIZ KEETA moved up approaching the five-furlong pole to press PARLAY, remained on that rival's flank through the middle stages, then was unable to go with the winner when that one quickened away heading into the far turn and weakened through the stretch. This race had a timing discrepancy or malfunction and was re-timed using video technology to arrive at the most accurate time.

BREAKHEART PASS settled behind the dueling leaders in the second flight, remained within range through the turn, slipped through along the rail near the three-sixteenths pole when SAMURAI SWORD drifted out, quickly took command and drew clear through the late stages. LITTLE TRUCK lacked early speed and settled near the rear while saving ground, came under coaxing to keep pace through the early stages, went into a full drive from the three-eighths pole and rallied along the inside through the stretch to gain the place. RULE THE ROOST raced in the second flight alongside BREAKHEART PASS behind the dueling leaders, was unable to go with that rival when BREAKHEART PASS kicked on approaching the three-eighths pole, came under a drive and lost some ground, then came back on with a three-wide rally through the late stages to gain third. SAMURAI SWORD dueled with EL NOTIONAL through the early stages while lugging out as the pair raced clear of the others, continued to lug out two to three paths into the stretch and left an opening along the rail, then weakened through the late stages. COME HERE KARL settled toward the rear, lost ground through the middle stages and passed tiring rivals through the late stages. SKEDAZZLE settled with the trailing group through the early stages and failed to make an impact through the late stages. EL NOTIONAL dueled with SAMURAI SWORD through the early stages while clear of the others, remained involved through the middle stages, then gave way through the stretch. HEARTACHES got roughed up after the start, trailed through the early stages, improved slightly approaching the stretch but failed to make an impact. This race had a timing discrepancy or malfunction and was re-timed using video technology to arrive at the most accurate time.

KICK IT IN settled in the middle of the pack, began to close on the top pair approaching the stretch, steadily cut into the leader's advantage and was up in the final strides. GLACIAL POWER seized the early lead and was left to dictate moderate fractions, responded when asked to quicken late on the turn, battled gamely when confronted by CANDY ADDICTION near the quarter pole, bested that rival by midstretch but could not hold off the winner. CANDY ADDICTION tracked GLACIAL POWER through the tepid pace, moved to challenge that rival for the lead after passing the three-furlong pole, chased in vain through the stretch without being able to pull even, then weakened in the final furlong. MONEY AGENT tracked near the back, was outfinished through the stretch and unable to improve. MIDNIGHT TEQUILA settled at the back, remained in range to the stretch, but lacked a rally and was never a threat. This race had a timing discrepancy or malfunction and was re-timed using video technology to arrive at the most accurate time.
