BETTER HALF raced three-wide through the early stage, always traveling the best of the trio contesting the early lead, took command into the turn, opened up approaching the quarter pole, then drew away under a mild hand ride. EARLY BLOOMER vied between horses early, then was left to chase BETTER HALF through the turn but proved no match, kept on well to hold second. SARAH JANE was outrun by the other three entrants from the break, stayed close, but could not generate a late threat. ROCKY CHANNEL was the inside horse in the early pace battle, dropped out before the turn, then was not a factor in the late stages.
