Footnotes | View Glossary Of Terms

STELLAR VINO was not asked for speed from the break but was always close up racing along the rail, became boxed in through the whole of the far turn, then burst clear through an opening at the top of the stretch and went clear of the rest in the late stages. STICKY NOTE settled well behind the main group but ahead of BOURBON STATE through the early running, made a three-wide bid on the far turn, then finished up well to just get up for second while never a threat to the winner. BOURBON STATE off slow, then was the distant trailer through the early stages, saved ground, then made a nice late bid up the rail, was outfinished for the place. CAPO LUIGI was quick to the front, got inside position, but had to battle two other rivals on the early pace, dug in when set down near the quarter pole but was unable to last, kept on with good courage, but missed hitting the board. GOD OF WINE settled three-to-four wide through the first half-mile, made a middle move into and through the far turn to reach contention near the quarter pole, bid five-wide then flattened out in upper stretch. CATALINA CAT raced in the middle of a three-way battle for the early pace, held position to the stretch, then tired. TALKSCHEAP vied three-wide to the far turn then weakened in the stretch.
