Footnotes | View Glossary Of Terms

DUTTON STREET GIRL hopped at the start, was never far off the pace, rallied into the second turn, advanced inside, shifted out for the drive, closed willingly and wore down REBEL GAL to get up late. REBEL GAL got away well to be clear early, set the pace and was caught in the final strides. CHAMAVILLE broke out, stalked the pace, rallied into the turn, went widest in the drive, closed steadily and got up late for show. DONTMESSWITHTESS lost her footing at the start, stalked the pace along the inside while racing in hand, shifted out and rallied into the second turn, bid to get within range, lacked the needed late rally, hung late and was caught for third. LOW KEY was never far off the pace, saved ground, lacked a bid and trailed the field.
