ROLLIN BLACKOUT was reserved off the pace trackig the pacesetting trio to the far turn, swept up five wide midway on the bend to take the lead at the top of the lane and pulled away unthreatened in the stretch convincingly. DERRYGOOLIN prompted the pace from three wide down the backstretch, rallied to a brief lead between rivals leaving the quarter pole, could not match strides with the winner and kept-on willingly as second best. TRUE MYTH pinched back at the start, dropped well off the pack to be the distant trailer to the far turn despite steady urging, rallied when straightened away in the lane and mounted a belated bid passed tired rivals to gain the show. PANTHERA pressed the pace from between rivals down the backside, rallied two wide at the quarter pole to be part of a four way bid for the lead and flattened out, weakening through the stretch. TOO HOT TO STOP set the pace under constant pressure to the head of the stretch and tired in the lane.
