Footnotes | View Glossary Of Terms
HEAVENLY DEACON tracked the leaders down the backside, made a steady advance narrowing the gap on the turn, angled inside the drifting pacesetters in upper stretch and closed well to be up in deep stretch. PASTOR DAVE took the lead away from the gate, settled to press the pace from three wide to midway on the turn, was repelled by the pacesetter nearing the quarter pole dropping off the leader, came again in upper stretch while drifting out to catch the tiring leader and was outkicked in the final hundred yards. TEQUILA THERAPY took the lead after the first eighth of a mile to set a pressured pace to midway on the turn, kicked clear nearing the quarter pole, held the advantage to mid-stretch and drifted out late while tiring. MOR TIGER PAW broke inward to be slowly away giving the field several lengths and rallied passed weaker turning for home showing some late interest. PAHAPESTO WILLY went evenly as no threat. SPECIAL AGENT MAN chased the pace down the backside and faded from contention.
