LATIN FORCE was rated early, advanced along the backstretch to the turn, swung out entering the stretch, assumed command, drew clear and was ridden out under confident handling. RAMBLINGAMBLINMAN brushed at the start, was crowded into the first turn, was unhurried early and saved ground, advanced along the backstretch to the turn, swung wide entering the stretch, closed steadily and gained late to narrow the gap. BAJ lagged while never far back, put in a steady effort and was along for show while no threat to the top two. STAR MISSION broke out and brushed at the start, settled off the pace while racing inside, bid along the rail on the turn and came up empty late. MOE DINGERS sprinted clear to set the pace, tired leaving the turn and stopped. TARPS STORM raced in the second flight, showed speed to the second turn, flattened out and steadily dropped back.
