Footnotes | View Glossary Of Terms

WOLFIE'S DYNAGHOST showed the way along the inside, spurred clear entering upper stretch and held sway. TAKING CANDY pursued from midpack two to three wide, shfited out five wide into the lane and rallied for place. MERCANTE was bumped between horses leaving the gate, laid off of the pace two to three wide, then four wide around the far turn before fanning to the seven path into the lane, yet rallied willingly to reach a share of show at the wire. LAGYNOS settled well back near the inside, then in two path around the far turn, rallied up the rail to edge show in the final furlong but got nailed by an outer foe to share that position at the wire. CORRUPTION bumped with an inner foe at the start, pressed outside of the eventual winner around both turns, but failed to keep pace with that one into upper stretch and faded between horses. QUATROCENTO stalked along the inside, chased under urging around the far turn, shifted out to the three path before getting outkicked in upper stretch, shied mildly while between foes nearing the final sixteenth and yielded. CHASING THE CROWN bumped an outer foe at the start, laid off of the pace along the inside, then two wide around the far turn, entered the lane in the six path and between horses, moved in and failed to menace. TAPIT SHOES broke a step slow and was last away, trailed while moving out to the three path around the first turn, then made little impact. ENCINO got subtly keen while tugging in the bit between horses early on, tracked two wide, chased around the far turn then weakened between horses once floated to the four path in upper stretch. MOUNT RUNDLE pursued from midpack along the inside and faded around the far turn. ENGLISH CHUNNEL raced at the rear in the two path, but showed little, eased through the lane then transported off of the track in an equine ambulance and was found to have bled.
