Footnotes | View Glossary Of Terms

OUTLAW COUNTRY pressed the pace three wide and idled a bit off the turn and then fought on determinedly to wear down the leader and win the bob on the wire to prevail under a drive. CELTIC PRIDE set a pressured pace pace on the inside and shook clear leaving the three-sixteenths and then dug in leaving the sixteenth marker and brushed late and was denied losing the bob to just miss. GREAT HEAVENS was rated along two wide, moved out three wide and advanced, came four wide off the turn and rallied but needed more. CATAHOULA MOON broke in and bumped a foe at the start, settled on the outside and raced four wide on the turn, came five wide into the lane and angled in by the three-sixteenths and had no late kick. POINT LIAM chased the pace on the inside and weakened. LEE ANN'S WARRIOR bumped at the break, chased the pace four to five wide and stopped.
