Footnotes | View Glossary Of Terms

GENUINE PERIL broke with the leader, drew clear under her own courage before a quarter, maintained daylight through the turn while still firmly in hand, scruffed a few times in upper stretch to dispose of her nearest pursuer and coasted home to win in handy fashion. LONG GONE SALLY broke back, trailed early as a result, advanced closest to the winner in the two path turning for home, proved no match for that one in the run to he wire, clearly second best. CATARINA also broke behind the early leaders, advanced through the turn, steered out to chase the winner in the three path out of the turn, could do little with that rival or the runner up through the lane to finish up best of the rest. BLUESKYSLOOKINATME broke with the winner between horses, briefly vied with that one and then chased into the turn, had little left after three furlongs. COUSHATTA CUTIE broke forwardly as well, began a steady fade outside after a quarter.
