Footnotes | View Glossary Of Terms

KNOTENLOSERIN was three-wide into the opening turn, prompted action leaving the backstretch, and opened up on the field. BLUE GRANITE reserved early, gained closer order in the final turn, and rallied for place. ALBERTA'S STORM was outsprinted leaving the opening turn, and was bested late for second. G T RAY SIR lacked a clear path early, gained ground inside, waited in the final turn, swung out and closed late. MEMORECOWBOYTHANU fractious in the gate, dropped back leaving the first turn, and faded. COME ON BIG LOU loaded without the rider, quickly went to the front, was overtaken leaving the backstretch, and wilted. ABSOLUT JOHN sent for outside speed, was five wide in the first turn, and was through early.
