Footnotes | View Glossary Of Terms

SONOFAGHOST was five to six wide entering the backstretch, contended the pace while four wide, disposed to rival entering the stretch and held safely. LETSGOTOTHENINO was brushed entering the backstretch, was four wide at the head of the lane, and closed well. DREAMS IN THE SKY sat just off the pace, dropped back in the far turn, lodged a rail bid and finished evenly. KNOTENLOSERIN brushed gate leaving, and lodged a mild bid into the lane. TWICKENHAM hopped slightly away from the gate, cruised up along an open rail to press the pace, and came up empty in the drive. RIVER ROCK FIRE pressed five wide, and couldn't keep pace with the field. ABSOLUT JOHN was not a factor.
