Footnotes | View Glossary Of Terms

BOBBY DAZZLER sat in a striking position three wide, advanced to engage BARAK for the lead, dueled from the outside into the stretch, battled through the final strides, and inched clear in time. BARAK set the early pace from just off the rail, was joined by BOBBY DAZZLER, dueled through the stretch and was outfinished in the closing stages. MY MUNNINGS MODEL sat in range between foes, waited for running room, angled out four to five wide entering the stretch, angled down to the rail while closing well and got by late for show. NEWHART was outsprinted to the opening turn, stalked from the rail, and lacked the kick that was needed. GHOSTLY SPITFIRE was five wide into the opening turn, tracked four wide through the backstretch, and offered a late bid. ACCIDENTAL GENIUS unhurried early, was asked to quicken leaving the backstretch, and faded. TAYLOR FIELD trailed and failed to threaten.
