Footnotes | View Glossary Of Terms

TENTH STREET DON was unhurried early, gained closer order in the final turn, swung four wide, and won going away. AMEER was gapped early, shifted four wide at the head of the lane and closed huge getting up for second. SPORTSCARR jostled at the start, rated well off the pacesetters while four wide, angled to the rail at the sixteenth pole, and was outkicked. PUMP THE BRAKES broke inward into SPORTSCARR, contended the early pace outside of TAKE CHARGE CURLY, gained an advantage nearing the final turn, and faded gradually in the stretch. TAKE CHARGE CURLY bumped leaving the gate, pressed the pace from the rail, was unable to move on with rival and yielded. WINTER FALCON was reserved off the dueling pacesetters, and tired.
