Footnotes | View Glossary Of Terms

WEITZMAN vied for the early lead from two wide then fell back off the pace going into the backstretch, engaged the leader near the three furlong marker and drew clear near the quarter pole and won going away. CAPTAIN BLOOD raced near the back through the final turn then made a late rail bid to be second best. ALL HONORS raced near the back down the backstretch then moved up from two wide on the final turn and tipped out to three wide in upper stretch for the rally to be up for the show. SPUNOUTOFGMIND rushed up to be off the pace going into the first turn then settled in the middle of the pack while racing two wide then made a mild bid into the stretch but was outfinished. CATALINA GOLD went to a pressured lead through the first turn then drew clear going into the backstretch but was headed near the three furlong marker but was no match for the winner and tired late. MINIMUS MAXIMUS settled in the middle of the pack from the inside down the backstretch, lacked a bid on the final turn and was empty late. EL GANSITO vied for the early lead from three wide to the first turn then tracked the leaders to the three furlong marker before giving way. SHAHENSHAH was unhurried to the first turn then lost contact and was distanced.
