Footnotes | View Glossary Of Terms

LIEUTENANT CHARM raced within striking distance, moved up on the outside around the second turn, made a late bid, five wide and got up in time. GRAND ORACLE vied for the early lead, dueling with CHICANERY, forwardly placed throughout and was outfinished for the win. CHICANERY dueled on the front end, challenged throughout and lacked a late kick. MAZING MARK lacked early speed, raced outside around the final turn, moved up, racing wide and was no factor. DON PABLO raced evenly near the back and was never a threat. RIVERWALK pressed the early pace, saved ground around the final turn and faded. EASY LIKE BREEZY always raced near the back and trailed throughout.
