Footnotes | View Glossary Of Terms

BOURBON DREAM broke outwardly before settling off the pace, made a four wide move at the three eighths pole loomed through the far turn until meeting up with the leader at the eighth pole, finally switched leads at the sixteenth and edged clear. SKYRAYLEIGH swiftly left the gate to earn early command, was challenged by SOUND BITE after rounding the first turn, continued to lead with close company from that rival until shaking loose of that one in the upper stretch, met a bid from BOURBON DREAM at the eighth until grudgingly giving way at the sixteenth for a gamely finish. SOUND BITE (IRE) kept close company with the leader in the two path but began to flatten out in the final furlong, clear of the rest for the show award. FOREVER CHOCOLATE opted to be the distant trailer in the early stages, began advancing through the far turn, continued to pass tired rivals along the inside of the stretch. L GOLDEN BOY was forwardly placed five wide through the first turn, backed off to reposition along the inside at the three quarters marker, chased up the backstretch but lacked a response when met with the rider's encouragement in the far turn. OUR NOTION was bumped between runners at the start, raced off the pace in the early stages, split foes entering the far turn to be in range of the leaders but stopped in the upper stretch. FROSTY THE GIANT brushed inner foe at the start, found a forward position three wide, lacked a bid. PAYNTER'S PRODIGY was forwardly placed four wide, retreated at the three eighths.
