Footnotes | View Glossary Of Terms

MUSICAL BAND away alertly, settled to stalk the pacesetter into the first turn, held that position to the quarter pole, responded willingly when called upon to engage the leader in mid-stretch and drew away convincingly. CAJUN CUPID took the lead on the first turn, set a well rated pace on a clear lead to the head of the stretch, had no answer for the winner but ran-on well as second best. LIL CENTRAL unhurried in the early going to be near the rear of the field as they turned onto the backstretch, commenced a steady advance from five wide leaving the half mile pole and finished well on the outside to gain the show without threatening the top pair. UNINSPIRED reserved in mid-pack to the stretch and put in a mild bid splitting horses at the three-sixteenths pole and just missed the show. TOMMIE'S TRUE passed tiring rivals in the stretch while showing good late energy. SOFT HANDS tracked the leaders for three-quarters and flattened out in the lane. SHALOM went evenly. PERENNIALSPROMISE chased the pace down the backside from four wide and came up empty on the far turn. HILLBILLY'S HEART was outrun.
