Footnotes | View Glossary Of Terms

THE PETITIONER vied early for pace and settled back on the inside entering the turn then tipped out four wide in the upper and drew clear down the lane to prove best. ONE SURE HIT was bumped at the start and settled back in the three path through the turn, then swung out ten wide into the upper and vied from the outside while drifting inwards and was just up for the place award. GREATIZLOVE settled mid-pack in the four path and swung out about eight wide into the upper and vied between rivals while floating inwards and was just short of the place award. GALLABYE settled at the very back of the pack along the inside through most of the race then circled around a tiring rival in the upper and vied from the inside but just missed. KING JULES was bumped at the start and settled mid-pack in the two path, then came out five wide in the upper and weakened while being brushed in the deep stretch. MR DIGITS settled back off the pace in the four path and tipped out ten wide into the upper to be widest but needed a bid. KRUGERRAND KIP broke outwards and stalked the pace mid-way from the three path then swung out seven wide into the upper and faded. LONESOME KNIGHT was bumped hard at the start and dropped back early on and steadied nearing the half mile marker then trailed the field and was no factor. MAN OF THE HILL broke outwards and bumped with a rival then bobbled and rushed up nearing the half mile and stalked the pace briefly from the two path then faltered in the upper. MR PAYROLL rushed up early and set the pace then shifted to the inside coming around the turn and kicked clear to have a brief lead but tired out entering the stretch.
