JAZZY GAL showed speed between foes and two wide, vied for the lead to the turn then took command into the bend, kicked clear leaving the quarter marker, widened the lead into the lane and was ridden out to win as much the best. DREAMCHASER JEWELS rated off of the early pace, coaxed four wide to stretch, could not impact the winner into the final furlong and was second best. BOOTS AN DIAMONDS vied for the early lead, chased inside to stretch, weakened in the drive and just held for third. AIN'T GOT A CLUE off slow, chased inside to two wide to upper stretch, no final kick, missed third. SURELY THE ONE off bit slow and allowed to settle, swung five wide upper stretch, no threat late. F J'S WARRIOR close up in the early stages, stalked three wide to quarter marker, tired stretch. CHILEAN WIND lacked early speed, trailed into the turn, no late response.
