Footnotes | View Glossary Of Terms

LOST IN THE SAUCE tracked the pace three wide, split foes in the final sixteenth to drive for the win. MIRACLE ON CENTRAL pressed the early pace from the inside, backed off through the turn, moved up four wide to take command at the three sixteenths, grudgingly gave way late. SPIELMAN was rated four wide, showed a mild rally down the stretch to be up for the show award. CAJUN SWAGGER settled off the pace, swung out eight wide in the stretch, made some improvements. MISTER O was quick to take command, relinquished the lead at the three sixteenths, weakened then on. MAX THE BUTLER was rated along the inside, failed to menace. LEMON SOHN trailed throughout, far outside of the stretch, no factor.
