Footnotes | View Glossary Of Terms

WIZARD OF YESTER broke outward at the start, quickly took command of a pressured pace, drew off in the final furlong to be clearly the best. DAREDEVIL DOUG was pinched back at the start, moved up to track the pace from the inside, entered the stretch four wide, repositioned back to the inside of the final furlong, no match for the winner. MAX THE BUTLER settled back to be the early trailer, passed foe in the far turn, rallied through traffic down the stretch to be up for the show award. MIRACLE ON CENTRAL pressed the early pace, drifted out down the stretch while weakening to get out-finished for the minor awards. COBOCH was bumped at the start, raced around the middle of the pack four wide, rubbed shoulders with FAITH'S SPIRIT going up the backstretch, weakened down the stretch. SEPTEMBER SILVER was squeezed back at the start, raced off the pace early, advanced along the inside of the turn, retreated in the stretch. RUN DAVID RUN raced off the pace, trailed at the three eighths, passed tiring foe in the stretch. FAITH'S SPIRIT hit the gate at the start, rubbed shoulders with COBOCH going up the backstretch five wide, retreated in the stretch.
