CLEAR AS A BELE tracked the early pace from the inside, launched a three wide bid at the top of the stretch to duel with HAY JUDE, was brushed out repeatedly down the stretch but was able to dig in to earn the win. HAY JUDE moved up to chase the early pace in the two path, applied heavy pressure through the turn before taking charge at the top of the stretch, entered a duel with CLEAR AS A BELE at the three sixteenths, drifted out under left handed urging to brush off repeatedly in the stretch, finished gamely. BRON AND BROW settled back to be the early trailer, gained along the inside of the turn before taking hold approaching the quarter, tipped out four wide at the three sixteenths, improved for the show award. SOUNDS LIKE POWER settled off the pace, trailed at the quarter, angled out five wide in the stretch to make some minor improvements. CRAKEN JAX claimed the early pace, led under pressure through until giving way at the top of the stretch, faded then on. BELEOUT was fractious in the post parade, raced five wide, entered the stretch seven wide, trailed at the three sixteenths.
