Footnotes | View Glossary Of Terms

MY LIAM was bumped at the start, shadowed the leading pair up the backstretch and through the turn, tipped out five wide at the top of the stretch to duel with inside foes, took charge at the eighth, held off late driving foe. TWIRLING ROSES was bumped at the start, raced off the pace in the early stages, advanced three wide through the turn, launched a five wide bid at the eighth to show a nice drive that was just held off by the winner. FLIPPING FISH tracked the early pace four wide, angled out seven wide in the upper stretch, showed a mild rally late for the show award. BADGEBALL vied for early command with STRANGE ARRANGE, entered the stretch dueling between foes, gave way at the eighth, got out-finished for the show award. BEGFORFORGIVENESS raced along the outside of the middle of the pack, saved ground in the turn, split foes entering the stretch to be close up behind the pace, flattened out in the final furlong. BARON OF THE NILE raced not to far behind the pace along the inside, closed in rounding the turn to enter the stretch in a competitive position, weakened in the final sixteenth. ONCOMING TRAIN settled off the pace, brushed into CRIME SPREE while angling out in the final furlong, found best stride late. STRANGE ARRANGE vied for command in the two path with BADGEBALL, entered the stretch dueling between foes, faded in the final furlong. CRIME SPREE had a wide trip and never threatened. B MINOR raced off the pace, made no impact. SANPIRODU trailed throughout, no factor.
