GUAGUARERO contested early pace, shook free into the turn then led to upper stretch, lost action in the final sixteenth, held to the wire then was transported off of the course via the equine ambulance. SKIP FORWARD (JPN) contested early pace inside, stalked to the quarter, tipped out and chased the winner into the final furlong, was gaining late but could not reel in the winner and was second best. ARNIE took back in the early going, angled widest upper stretch, closed willingly late. MAX THE BUTLER tracked early pace three wide, chased four wide upper stretch, weakened lane. CLEARLY STARDOM off step slow, hustled while in tight and between foes to the turn, coaxed along two wide to upper stretch, gave way. DON PABLO squeezed start, angled five wide upper stretch, faltered in the drive. FULL COMMAND squeezed start, trailed to quarter pole, no factor stretch. PERFECT DIAL broke in, tracked early pace between, coaxed three wide upper stretch, empty in the drive.
