ROCK N ROLL BOLT broke well and saved ground to chase the early speed two wide through the first turn, continued up the backstretch in no rush to close in on the pace setter, coaxed along through the far turn to be in range turning for home, launched his bid to take charge inside the three-sixteenths and forged ahead down the lane. OPTIMUS KAT broke outward and bumped runners at the start, settled off the pace towards the inside and waited for his cue around the five-sixteenths, shifted out four wide in the upper stretch to begin his run, drifted in slightly around the eighth-pole, continued to close in the final furlong but was held at bay by the winner. BONS TEMPS ROULE broke slowly, was in no hurry during the early stages and opted to trail, began nudging along through the second turn, took to the outside of the stretch and mustered a respectable rally for the show award. SPONGE BATH was sharp early to take charge before the first turn, showed the way uncontestedly three wide through the first turn and up the backstretch, took the far turn under a tight inner rein and some right handed shoulder taps to keep from losing ground, was caught inside the three-sixteenths and proceeded to tire. MAASAI WARRIOR got in tight at the start and settled off the pace along the inside, shifted out three wide for the backstretch run before being roused around the three-eighths, angled out six wide at the top of the stretch but did not respond until the deep stretch. PUBLIUS brushed between runners at the start and was steadied shortly after, ranged up four wide through the first turn and tracked the pace up the backstretch, met his cue around the three-eighths pole but flattened soon after entering the stretch. SENDERO was off a step slow and raced off the pace two wide, continued until making a three wide move in the upper stretch to split runners and make some improvements. Z Z'S PRINCE found a forward position between runners for the first turn, backed off into the middle of the pack during the backstretch run, was nudged along through the far turn into a five wide move at the top of the stretch but came up empty. TAMBOURINE STAR brushed with inner foe at the start, found his rating along the inside, was asked at the three-eighths pole and gave a little response rounding the far turn but retreated down the stretch. GASOLINE was bumped between runners at the start before being squeezed back, raced off the pace until being roused rounding the far turn into a drive at the five-sixteenths, fanned seven wide turning for home but came up empty.
