REMI was bumped between runners at the start, gave chase along the inside, coaxed along through the turn before launching a three wide bid at the quarter, was carried out by A HINT OF SCANDEL and fought on to be up in the final jumps. A HINT OF SCANDEL got bumped between runners at the start, dueled with STARRY EYED in the two path up the backstretch and through the turn, claimed sole command at the three-sixteenths but began to drift out along his left lead in before getting nailed in the final jumps. FINAL HALF bumped inner foe at the start, settled off the pace in the three path, ranged up into the middle of the pack approaching the turn, took to the inside nearing the three-eighths and met his cue, tipped out into the two path in the upper stretch and kept on for the show award. STARRY EYED bumped outer foe at the start, dueled for command along the inside with A HINT OF SCANDEL continued through the turn before relinquishing his share in the upper stretch, kept on before tiring late. CHARIOT settled off the pace along the inside, was roused nearing the three-eighths pole and shifted into the four path in the upper stretch but lacked a closing effort. DREWRELIUS raced in the middle of the pack four wide, met his cue around the five-sixteenths, did not respond until the deep stretch to show some late improvements. BUBBY was forwardly placed between runners, backed off through the turn to enter the stretch in the five path but tired late. PINEAPPLE WILLY was forwardly placed five wide for the run up the backstretch, dropped back into the middle of the pack rounding the turn and entered a drive at the five-sixteenths but lacked late kick. CHARLIE PRIME raced off the pace, never threatened. HINT OF PLATINUM broke slowly, trailed for most, went by fader. DECKHAND was forwardly placed four wide in the early stages, retreated through the turn and was eased across.
