Footnotes | View Glossary Of Terms

MALAKI EMPIRE was rated nicely behind the pace, made a three wide bid at the three sixteenths to take charge through the finish. COLT'S BRIM raced not too far off the pace, entered the stretch five wide, showed a steady rally but needed a bit more. GATSBY'S FORTUNE pressed the early pace, took a brief lead a the three sixteenths before giving way to the winner at the eighth. CRIGLER settled back to be the early trailer, gained position before entering the turn, closed willingly along the outside of the stretch. SHAWN'S SOLVING set a pressured pace along the inside, dueled briefly in the upper stretch before giving way at the three sixteenths and fading. GORDITO HERMOSO was bumped at the start, tracked the pace four wide, retreated at the three sixteenths. HARPES HILL was bumped at the start, trailed shortly after the start, eased across.
