Footnotes | View Glossary Of Terms

HEADS OR TAILS Well placed four wide, three path into the turn, angled out some, responded to collar the leader late and proved best. HE HAS IT ALL Contested the lead along the three path, grabbed the lead at the sixteenths pole and was caught late. ALLO ENRY Unhurried two from the rail, entered the turn along it, two path into the lane and finished with interest. INVALUABLE WILL Well placed five wide, four wide around, responded wide and finished with interest. MAX FOSTER Unhurried four wide, five wide around and finished wide. FATHER WALSH Vied along the two path, took the rail into the lane, battled and faded. SMOKIN' ALONE Lagged back six wide, five wide around and finished wide. MISTER J T Broke a step slow and then saved ground while always outrun.
