Footnotes | View Glossary Of Terms

EVEN TERMS saved ground setting the pace and was fully extended to prevail. GOOD PRODUCT was reserved off the pace, rallied four-wide into the stretch and finished fast. DR J Y. G was allowed to settle, rallied three-wide into the stretch and finished strongly. DOUBLE R CAT saved ground racing in the back of the field, lacked room momentarily nearing the eighth pole, angled in and rallied late. GOSPEL NATIVE broke in the air to get away behind the field then was allowed to settle while racing three-wide and went evenly late. E D'ORO was forwardly placed racing three-wide to near the stretch and weakened. PEA EYE prompted EVEN TERMS racing two-wide early and tired. TITLE TALK was in tight early racing between horses then was unhurried and failed to be a factor.
