SHARP LORENZO broke well, secured the lead entering the first turn, was only mildly pressured through the middle stages by TEXAS HOLDEM, shook free of that one on the final turn, and widened under steady handling. TEXAS HOLDEM pressed SHARP LORENZO throughout, could not go on with that one from the last turn but remained well clear of the rest to hold second. THE LAST MOXY saved ground through the second turn while racing far behind, began to run on with a half-mile to go and improved position late to gain third. VIENNA PRIZE chased well behind the top pair, then weakened on the final turn and was outfinished for a minor award. TUCKER FLATS broke in good order but had to be ridden along early to stay in contention and weakened before the half. HAMAZING WISDOM dropped far back early and was never involved. This race was re-timed using video technology to arrive at the most accurate time.
