Footnotes | View Glossary Of Terms

SUPERHERO dueled outside of DICEY WAGER early as the rest paired off behind, but that rival away on the turn, then opened up and went clear to the wire. DICEY WAGER dueled to the inside of SUPERHERO, gave way on the last turn, and had little left in the late stages. CHIEF CHITTOZ bobbled after the break, gave an even effort behind the top two, and closed some ground in the final yards. EVEN TERMS tracked the leading pair in the second flight, came out three-wide for the stretch run, and mildly gained. SOCIAL SOONER got off to a slow start despite urging from the rider at the break, raced two to three wide throughout and was never a threat. LORD CREW was fractious in the gate, fell far behind after the start, and showed little to no interest in competing.
