MISS ESCAPADE was urged from the break, forged to the front nearing the half-mile pole, drew off on the far turn, and widened through the stretch. PAULA M was sent from the break, dueled for the lead into the clubhouse turn, could not match the winner leaving the far turn, but held second. LOVE ME A SUNSET pressed the pace three-wide and stayed on willingly for the show. CAPETOWN CANDY raced three to four wide throughout, advanced on the last turn, and gained ground too late. MS. HILLARY was taken back off the early pace, settled inside at the rear, and failed to rally. ASPIRATIONAL broke awkwardly, raced between horses at the back and lacked a finish. SHE'S STORMING tracked the leaders early, faded to mid-pack, and was one-paced the rest of the way. DIAMOND GAL was caught four-wide into the first turn, remained outside, lugged out on the far turn, and never threatened.
