Footnotes | View Glossary Of Terms

TIZ TICKTOK tracked the leading trio at the head of the trailing group, launched a bid approaching the aruter pooe, went three-wide through the far turn, rallied, collared the leader mid-stretch, and went clear in the final yards. GOSPEL DON pressed the early pace three-wide on the first turn, then dueled two-wide down the backstretch, took command on the far turn, but weakened in the final yards and yielded the lead to the winner. CAPTAIN HAMAZING was devoid of early speed and last into the clubhouse turn, stayed along the inside and moved up approaching the quarter pole, angled out to the three path for the stretch run and made a mild late bid to just get up for the minor award. DR J Y. G rushed up behind the early pace mix, then shifted out quickly about four paths, carrying three rivals out wide, stayed on mildly late but was never a serious threat. MAX'S LUCKY BLING dueled inside a rival, then gave way on the far turn. GOSPEL JOURNEY hustled up to take the early lead, ceded the front at the half, came under a ride and steadily faded back to last. DERBY DAY was held up early on, got floated out about five-wide on the first bend, continued to race wide at the back of the pack, and was unable to muster up a late bid. DOUBLE R CAT went about six or seven side into the first turn, raced four-wide the rest of the way and was never a factor. This race was re-timed using video technology to arrive at the most accurate time.
