Footnotes | View Glossary Of Terms

BANDOLERO exchanged a bump at the start, stalked the leader from off the inside, moved closer late on the far turn, took over past the furlong marker then edged clear. CHASING GRAY soon led, set the pace in the clear, was no match but clearly second best. BE LUCKY AGAIN tracked from inside, was asked by the quarter pole, swung four wide into upper stretch, failed to rally but kept on to get third. WOLF HUNTER bumped with a rival at the start, raced mid-pack off the inside, was asked about the five-sixteenths, swung six wide, ran on but couldn't get show honors. EL JOVERO unhurriedly raced last but one, saved some ground coming into upper stretch along the inside and improving position. I GOT THE MOVES lacked early speed racing far back, failed to menace but passed tired rivals. STEFAN'S TITLE broke outwardly, moved forward heading to the turn racing four wide, advanced inside a rival then moved closer outside foes, was encouraged along passing the three-eighths but had no response, dropped back and faded. BEST DRESSED MAN chased three wide early, steadily retreated. HOLDEN MICHAEL was close heading to the first turn four then five wide, steadily dropped back, tired.
