TUT'S REVENGE broke a tad outwardly at the break, then went up to show the way while off the rail and under a good hold, raced in the two path on the turn while being well handled, then was engaged nearing the quarter pole by BROTHER BRAD, came off the turn three to four wide and had a long drive with that rival but held gamely to prevail. BROTHER BRAD stalked the pace and made a three wide bid nearing the quarter pole and had a long drive with the winner but was out-gamed and had to settle for being second best. MR SCATTER was settled early and advanced three to four wide on the turn but lacked the needed rally while besting the rest. BLUE SLIDE PARK tracked the pace along the rail and weakened midway on the turn and then tired. DOWNING STREET was off slowly and trailed on the inside, saved ground on the turn and failed to menace. VINO SANTO chased the early pace and then was two wide on the turn and stopped.
