Footnotes | View Glossary Of Terms

WATSON stalked the pacesetter, took over approaching the three-sixteenths marker, was headed by GAELIC LEGACY inside of the sixteenth pole, fought back determinedly under brisk pressure and regained the advantage nearing the wire. GAELIC LEGACY carried in early by the errant ETRUSCAN WARRIOR, saved ground, was maneuvered off the rail nearing the quarter pole, lodged a bid, was angled inside of WATSON, led briefly inside of the sixteenth pole but was bested in the final strides. ETRUSCAN WARRIOR lugged in early bothering GAELIC LEGACY, raced awkwardly with his head cocked to the right as his rider tried to correct him, had to be urged on the turn and had no substantive rally. CANDY COLE gained a narrow early lead, was headed on the turn and gave way in the stretch.
