Footnotes | View Glossary Of Terms

BAYOU BRIGID saved ground, commenced her bid far on the turn, was maneuvered off the rail just past the quarter pole, rallied strongly, hit the front at the sixteenth pole and held on under brisk pressure. CALATHEA seized command at the outset, held well into stretch, was reeled in approaching the sixteenth pole, dug in gamely and was fighting back gamely at the finish. OLIVIA VALENTINA off slowly, settled in the rear of the field early, advanced while four wide up the back stretch run, remained widest and stayed on under pressure. SPICY PRINCESS was reserved early and never menaced. LINDSAY SMILES chased the pacesetter and offered no response when called upon. SHOW OFF raced forwardly while three wide, moved closer on the far turn and came up empty in the stretch.
