Footnotes | View Glossary Of Terms

PIZZICATO prompted the pace from two wide to midway through the turn then moved up to engage the leader nearing the quarter pole and took command near the eighth pole, drew clear under mild urging. J J MONET hustled to a clear inside lead to midway through the turn then was challenged nearing the quarter pole, floated out entering the stretch but kept on to be overtaken near the eighth pole but stayed on for the place. AREACODEFIVEOONE was void of the early speed then moved between horses near the quarter pole and made a rail bid in the stretch to be up for the show. FIVE EYES ONMICHEL raced off the pace from two wide to the top of the stretch then moved out to four wide for a late run but was outfinished. WANT ALL THE SMOKE chased the pace from the inside to upper stretch and weakened. FUTURE FORTUNE raced wide and was always outrun. SQUARE BABY was always back and never a threat.
