Footnotes | View Glossary Of Terms

VENEZUELAN HOPE got shuffled back after the start then settled and saved ground, waited into the second turn then angled out and made a four wide rally to get up in time. MASAYOSHI got shuffled back after the start then raced well off the pace with a rail trip before starting to move into the second turn then slipped through along the rail in the stretch and rallied late for place. OPERATNTHUNDERBOLT stalked the early pace then loomed boldly on the second turn before taking the lead at the 1/4 pole but was outfinished late. ADVANCED moved up early along the inside and assumed command while pushed along the entire way and never getting a breather then was headed on the second turn and gave way late in the stretch. MAJESTIC DELIGHT broke inward the settled in the second flight with a four wide trip and chased into the second turn but made no rally into the stretch.
