PARDO bumped inner foe at the start, tracked the pace between runners up the backstretch, ranged up three wide to stalk the pace going into the far turn, met his cue at the three-eighths pole and entered a duel down the lane with SUNDAY SONG, was carried out while doing battle but was able to edge clear in the final jumps. SUNDAY SONG broke well and claimed command along the inside, continued under pressure from BLEU MARTINI up the backstretch, shook that foe off to be replaced by PARDO nearing the three-eighths and began asking soon after in response, drifted out a bit in the upper stretch while dueling on his inside lead, gave way late for a gamely finish. TO JOEY bumped outer foe at the start, shadowed the pace for the run up the backstretch, was nudged along three wide through the far turn but had no more for the stretch. BLEU MARTINI pressed the pace two wide, was roused around the seven-sixteenths but had no response and backed off the pace entered a drive nearing the quarter and still lacked the response needed, kept on along the inside down the stretch. ACTION DELIGHT settled four wide, trailed at the nine-sixteenths, showed little.

CAMM'S GIRL chased the pace along the inside, shifted out three wide rounding the far turn before entering a drive inside the three-sixteenths, ran down the leader to be up inside the final sixteenth and held firm. CRYPTIC THUNDER emerged from the start as the leader, continued under pressure along the inside, coaxed along through the far turn until meeting her cue inside the quarter, fought on down the lane but was caught in the final stages. EVERYMOMENTMATTERS pressed the pace between runners, was roused around the three-eighths pole and entered a drive nearing the quarter but lacked the closing kick needed to challenge the pace, flattened out in the final furlong but kept a head in front to hold for the show award. HIGHER SELF settled back and trailed in the early stages to save ground, gained position along the inside of the turn and met her cue at the quarter-pole, found a prominent position in the upper stretch but lacked a closing bid. COPPER CREOLE raced off the pace four wide, began asking at the seven-sixteenths and began advancing through the turn but had little left after entering the top of the lane. CELESTIAL HYMN was reluctant to load the starting gate, settled off the pace two wide, trailed at the five-sixteenths and entered a drive soon after but came up empty, passed retreating foe in the stretch. GRAN JUDGEMENT stalked the pace three wide, began asking at the three-eighths but lacked a response and retreated.

AMANDE tracked the pace four wide, was nudged along through the turn for a position to launch a bid in the upper stretch, took charge at the eighth-pole and kept on along her left lead holding off the late rally. FREE TO ROAM gave chase along the inside, was roused about the three-eighths marker and entered the top of the stretch five wide, rallied well but came up short. DRUM ROLL settled off the pace, gained along the outside of the turn, continued to make improvements down the lane. ANY MOMENT broke well and crossed in towards the two path to take charge shortly after the start, gave way to inner rival around the five-sixteenths, faded down the stretch along her left lead. MISPRINT led briefly shortly after the start and pressed the new leader from the inside, was coaxed along through the turn until reclaiming command around the five-sixteenths, gave way once more nearing the final furlong and weakened. R FIREBIRD raced close up between runners, backed off through the turn, showed little. FIVE EYES ONMICHEL broke a step slow, trailed throughout, no factor.

CORISTINE broke swiftly to claim a ground saving lead going into the first turn, continued up the backstretch as the clear pace setter, was encroached upon by PAX MUNDI rounding the far turn, began his drive in the upper stretch and pulled away from that foe to finish firmly. PAX MUNDI settled off the pace two wide for the first turn, waited patiently before ranging up three wide through the far turn, pressed the pace briefly but was repelled in the final furlong. PARNASSUS was a bit reluctant to load the starting gate, settled off the pace along the inside for the first turn, moved close up to the pace between runners travelling up the backstretch, was shuffled back by YASTRZEMSKI entering the far turn and repositioned to four wide, proceeded to show a decent rally but was too little too late. YASTRZEMSKI found a forward position three wide entering the first turn, shifted in a path to stalk the pace two wide midway up the backstretch, began nudging inside the half-mile marker but was lacking in response, backed off through the far turn and showed little in the stretch. FLAMEFIRE trailed for most, passed fader in the stretch. MARY'S MEMPHIS chased the pace from the inside, was keen rounding the first turn forcing the rider to keep a tight rein, relaxed nearing the five-eighths to continue rating up the backstretch, was roused around the three-eighths but came up empty and weakened down the lane.

CLASSIC EQUATION quickly found forward placement three wide, was cued around the three-eighths marker and quickly overtook the previous pace-setter, entered the lane with a clear advantage and was kept on task to hold off any late challengers. MALBEC was bumped outward at the start, raced off the pace four wide, began asking inside the half-mile marker and advanced through the far turn, continued his drive along the outside of the stretch, rubbing briefly with INHERENT PROMISE but was held at bay by the winner. INHERENT PROMISE found position around the middle of the pack three wide, was nudged along through the far turn before coming under a heavy drive at the top of the lane, rubbed with MALBEC briefly before flattening in the final sixteenth. AMBERSSOHN broke outward into rival, trailed along the inside for most, angled three wide entering the top of the stretch to make some minor improvements. TECHNO MUSIC bumped inner foe at the start, raced off the pace in the two path, shifted four wide entering the lane, lacked the late kick needed. HOWITZER bumped outer foe at the start, gave chase along the inside through the first turn, came under a tight rein nearing the three-quarter marker and backed off into the body of the field, began asking nearing the five-sixteenths and shifted out at the top of the lane but was unable to muster a rally. ONE MORE DUKE broke on top and set a clear pace going into the first turn, continued up the backstretch under no pressure in the three path, shifted along the rail entering the far turn and began nudging along, met a bid from CLASSIC EQUATION around the five-sixteenths and gave way, began retreating shortly after entering the stretch.

WITH KINDNESS pressed the pace two wide, met her cue inside the quarter-pole and entered the stretch dueling with FANTASY WORLD, fought hard to put a nose in front at the wire. FANTASY WORLD broke on top and showed the way along the inside under pressure, continued in hand before asking at the top of the lane, battled with WITH KINDNESS for a very gamely finish. YELL FOR MORE opted to trail in the early stages, shifted out five wide turning for home brushing out PRISM POOL PAT, formed a good rally to get up for the show award. LITTLE TOWN STREET stalked the pace three wide, came under a heavy drive rounding the far turn but was unable to form a bid and flattened out along her left lead. ENGLISH HARBOUR was rated between runners, met her cue at the quarter-pole but lacked the closing kick needed. MO JAVA was rated along the inside, began asking around the seven-sixteenths, retreated soon after entering the stretch. PRISM POOL PAT raced off the pace four wide, got brushed out by YELL FOR MORE at the top of the lane, never threatened.

WILD NIGHT was off a step slow but quickly rushed up along the inside to take command, was clear in front up the backstretch before meeting pressure from JUST A GIRL entering the far turn, coaxed along until coming under a ride nearing the three-sixteenths and pulled away from the challenger to finish with authority. JUST A GIRL was rated five wide in the early stages, made an early move to cross into the two path nearing the far turn, pressed the pace through the turn before meeting her cue at the five sixteenths, kept on but was no match for the winner. CONQUISTADORA brushed inner foe at the start, was off the pace four wide in the early stages, ranged up under some light asking through the far turn, entered a drive nearing the quarter-pole but could not close in on the top two, held for the show award. A LITTLE PRESLEY opted to be the early trailer, shifted four wide rounding the far turn and navigated around horses to make some late improvements. DILLY DALLY brushed outer foe at the start, raced off the pace three wide, took to the outside of the stretch but never fired. SENTA SAYS tracked the pace four wide up the backstretch, took a slight hold as JUST A GIRL crossed inward at the half-mile pole, backed off through the far turn, showed little down the lane. HONEY D'ORO settled off the pace before the far turn, trailed nearing the three-sixteenths, never threatened. CHUCKS AUBURN GIRL showed brief early speed before relinquishing command to WILD NIGHT, proceeded to give chase along the inside, was nudged along through the far turn but had little left for the stretch.

UNCLE DAR was forwardly placed three wide in the early stages, moved up to press the pace midway around the far turn, took charge inside the final furlong and held off a late rally to secure the victory. IF NOT FOR LUCK opted to be the early trailer, saved some ground through the turn before shifting out five wide at the top of the lane, showed an impressive rally that came up just short. THREE ZERO settled off the pace three wide, began asking around the half-mile marker, gained position through the far turn and found a prominent position at the top of the lane but was out-finished. CELTIC PRIDE emerged from the start as the early pace setter, came under pressure from UNCLE DAR midway around the far turn, began asking at the quarter but gave way at the furlong marker, flattened out of the minor awards. BANNEKER raced close up to the pace in the early stages, began asking inside the quarter and shifted three wide in the upper stretch, weakened in the final furlong. CAPTAIN EDDIE settled off the pace along the inside, received some shoulder taps going through the far turn before entering a drive at the top of the lane, lacked the response needed to close and trailed nearing the final furlong.

DREAM DANCER was forwardly placed three wide, continued to give chase up the backstretch, was coaxed along through the far turn and took charge inside the final quarter, kicked clear of the rest proving much the best. KHOPESH vied for early command with GUS SWAYZE and took charge entering the first turn, led briefly before giving way around the three-quarter marker, continued to give chase along the inside up backstretch, was nudged along through the far turn and shifted three wide in the stretch, picked off a couple rivals but was no match for the winner. GUS SWAYZE vied for the early lead with KHOPESH, gave way entering the first turn only for a moment before taking over around the three-quarter marker, continued a clear pace up the backstretch until meeting a bid from DREAM DANCER midway around the far turn, gave way to that rival at the top of the lane and faded. KHETAM found position around the middle of the pack, began to advance four wide after passing the half-mile marker, continued under a drive through the far turn in range up the lead but had no more soon after entering the lane. DAVID PEPPERMAN trailed for most, began to gain along the inside of the far turn and upper stretch, attempted to pass GUS SWAYZE along the rail inside the eighth-pole but had no room to do so and took a hold. POWER FROM ABOVE hit the inside of the gate at the start, raced off the pace, shifted four wide entering the stretch but came up empty. DISATTACHED raced off the pace, never threatened.
