UNLIMITED DRIP exchanged a light bump at the start, was forwardly-placed stalking then pressing the leader up the backstretch, took a narrow advantage about the three-eighths, edged clear into upper stretch, drifted in and out a bit in the lane but held. CID CAMPEADOR was bumped at the break, switched off the rail on the first turn advancing outside a rival, moved back in saving ground on the far turn while moving up, continued to gain in the stretch along the rail but steadied near the wire as the leader drifted about. KING OF LEGENDS exchanged a light bump at the start, trailed while racing off the inside, fanned six to seven wide into upper stretch, finished strongly outside but too late. CHIEF LION settled off the pace removed from the inside, fanned five to six wide in the stretch, kept on but was outkicked for the minor share. FIGHT AND PRAY stalked from outside, raced three to five wide throughout, weakened in late stretch. TULIO settled mid-pack racing three to four wide, went evenly and made no bid. ABARRIO FUGAZ raced on or just off the rail toward the back, was one-paced and never near enough to threaten. THE BIG THIEF bobbled slightly and bumped a rival at the start, raced on or just off the rail throughout, was never near enough to threaten. CAJUN'S MADNESS set the pace inside on or just off the rail, faltered and faded.
